THE 1947 CREST

Published by the SENIOR CLASS of Felician Academy; Detroit, Michigan

THE IDEAL WOMAN

She would be perfectly true.
There would be no deception or insincerity in her. In every relation of life she would be found faithful.
She would put herself last.
In her heart Christ would be on the throne and self on the cross. Self-control would take the place of self-will.
She would be serviceable.
Her hands would reach out in loving helpfulness to every suffering, needy creature with whom she comes in touch, and no service would be too slight.
She would be clothed with humanity.
No pride or self-conceit would mar the beauty of the things she did.
She would be gentle in speech.
From her lips would come no harsh words to wound the hearts that were nearest and dearest to her.
She would be personally attractive.
She would glorify her Master by proving that He can make His followers beautiful with a more than earthly fairness.
She would be popular.
But the host of friends whom she would draw would not stand between her and her Lord. Rather, she would draw them nearer Him.
She would love pleasure, knowing that Christ would want her to be happy.
But her good times would be of such a character that Christ would be a sharer in them.
More than all, she would be consistent.
Her life would square with her work.
So she would walk triumphantly the way of the Holy Cross, glorious in her discipleship, and crowned with the more than royal crown that He will give to those who overcome.

In appreciation to His Eminence, EDWARD CARDINAL MOONEY, for his efforts in behalf of us, the youth of today and the citizens of tomorrow.

To our recently-appointed Mother Provincial,
MOTHER MARY JANUARIA, we dedicate this 1947 Crest.

We, the class of 1947, wish to express our deep appreciation to the members of the FACULTY for their loving efforts in behalf of our welfare.

upper left—Wandzia and Jas dance with their wedding guests.
left center—Wanda hears the river calling.
right center—"Dear God, spare Poland."
lower center—A salute to Our Lady of Czestochowa.

upper left—The bride and groom partake of bread and salt, an old Polish custom.

center—Dolores Szczygielska gives the background of the story concerning Wanda.

bottom—The familiar "organista" sings his good wishes and blessing to the bride and groom.

The Seniors love to dance. They sponsor many such affairs during the school year, both formal and informal. Dances which took place this year include The Harvest Frolic, November 16, at Knights of Columbus Hall, and the Holly Hop at Dom Polski, January 5. The most important event was, of course, the Senior Prom, on May 3, at the League of Catholic Women Hall.

All work and no play makes a dull Jill out of a girl. Our play takes very many forms. The Juniors sponsor several "Hot Dog Sales" during school time. We also have our annual initiation and Halloween party with the Sophomores as our hostesses.

DAY—JUNE 8, 1947

CLASS WIL

We, the class of 1947, being of sound mind and body do hereby declare the following to be our last will and testament:

To all our beloved teachers we will our sweet and cheerful dispositions. May they find them unused.

To the class of 1948, we bequeath all our A's hoping that they will not mistreat them.

To all the girls of the Felician Academy we will the panes in our new corridor doors. May they find them more convenient than their pocket mirrors.

We, the 12A's, bequeath the following:

Josephine Slawski leaves to Janet Kurzyniec a smile. May she wear it to the best of her ability.

Ann Gozdowski bequeaths to her beloved teachers all her past test papers including the good ones (?).

Dolores Budnik, the Senior librarian, bequeaths to the Junior librarian this annual, to aid in holding her interest during a lull in her book checking.

Dolores Yetke bequeaths her "solid" sportsmanship to the future active Seniors.

Lorraine Renkowski hereby leaves her ability, aptitude, and little stubby pencil to the future editor of the Crest.

Sylvia Piper bequeaths to Dolores Weiss, a future secretary, her typing eraser hoping she will not have to use it as frequently as she did.

Henrietta Zapytowski being of sound (?) mind wills her old saddle shoes and a full bottle of white shoe polish to an enthusiastic student, who will follow her footsteps.

Theresa Schornack wills her fountain pen (it leaks) to some deserving Freshie.

Dolores Mazur passes on her ability to remember history to Theresa Bikowski.

Irene Gawlikowski wills all the blackboards to Irene Szynkowski who is artistically inclined.

Virginia Makulski wills her school girl's complexion to Cecilia Milewski, providing she will use only Palmolive soap.

Joanne Stefanowski bequeaths her power of borrowing pencils, loose leaf sheets, etc., to Fabiola Reder.

Joan Makowski wills her amazing typing speed (?) to Theresa Wojcicki, a future secretary.

Marian Radzialowski wills her ability to write shorthand to any "short-handed" Junior, possibly Diane Rapczynski.

Helen Nawrocki bequeaths page 5 of the F. A. Newslet to Rosemary Zaglaniczna, a future lucky typist.

Patricia Bozynski bequeaths her "Pan Tadeusz" to Helen Gola so she can study all of it fluently.

Dorothy Radwan bequeaths two safety pins to Virginia Turek to keep her from "slipping."

Regina Lewandowski leaves her empty locker to Doris Hommel, a lucky Junior.

AND TESTAMENT

Dolores Nowakowski bequeaths her shy disposition and her blue eyes to Margaret Nosakowski.

Dolores Zauska wills her useful, bright ideas to Patricia Jakubowski.

Marianne Lubinski bequeaths her speedy technique of studying Latin to any Latin student.

Mary Baczkowski and Geraldine Morin will their ability of arriving to school a few seconds before the second bell to any future Senior.

Theresa Raczkowski leaves to Virginia Swiderski her "carefree" disposition and her jolly songs for some melancholy day.

Diane Schmidt bequeaths her favorite piano piece, "Tico-tico," to any girl musically inclined.

Florence Olejniczak bequeaths to Dorothy Kopec a shorthand pad with one sheet, just in case she is in need of it.

Evelyn Zielinski leaves her Religion notes to Rita Gosk, who might make use of them.

Lucille Jakubowski leaves her "speech-consciousness" to Rita Mazur, who is interested in Speech Arts.

Marcelline Golochowicz wills her dancing ability to light-footed Janet Kuzera.

Agnes Wells bequeaths her English vocabulary note book to Lorraine Lachajewski who might possibly use it some fine day.

Therese Szalaszewicz leaves her aptitude for performing chemistry experiments successfully to any chemistry student who is interested. (WARNING: HF burns fingers, too.)

Christine Marut wills her ability to laugh louder than the rest of the class to Stella Dammer.

Mary Ann Pudlo wills the pleasure of sitting in the back seat of the class to Delphine Youngert.

Eugenia Borawski bequeaths to Theresa Herman an intense interest in dramatics.

Cecilia Obuchowski leaves to Clara Kitlas the privilege of being in charge of the F. A. Lost and Found Department.

Gene Rakoczy leaves to Dorothy Kubicki her famous motto, "Grin and bear it."

Helen Wanat bequeaths to Jean Jeziolkowski all her red hair ribbons.

Dolores Szczygielski bequeaths her chemistry locker to any student who is interested in Chemistry.

Theresa Jankiewicz leaves the honor that her celebrated name demands to those privileged girls bearing the name of Theresa.

Celine Lesinski leaves her passion for collecting news articles to any student who wants it.

Signed and sealed on this fourth day of March in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

Signed — Class of 1947.
